

ordinary life can be
EXTRAORDINARILY TOXIC

protect your home and health . . .

Everyday items in our homes, such as paint, polishes, and fertilizers can be household hazardous waste.

Dispose of home toxics properly. Contact your local solid waste management district.

Use a broom, not a hose, to clean up spills. Washing toxics into the storm drain will send them untreated into the closest waterway.

For more information on this topic, give us a call at 419-241-9155
or visit MaumeeRAP.org.
For all of us, Give Water A Hand!