Native plants have deep, thirsty roots that help retain water in your yard and absorb fertilizer before it can run off.

Native plants are best suited for our climate. They are drought tolerant and disease resistant; they rarely require fertilizers – saving you money.

Promote our native biodiversity. The variety is important to the health of our local ecosystem.

For more information on this topic, give us a call at 419-874-0727 or visit PartnersForCleanStreams.org

For all of us, Give Water A Hand!